

Alarming: Hoddle's helper Michelle Farrer struggles to keep her eyes open watching the U21s with England boss Glenn Hoddle

Big snooze for fans as Under 21s bore Adams Park

ENGLAND U21s edged closer to a European Championship qualifying place after a mind-numbingly boring 1-0 win over Moldova at Adams Park on Tuesday.

Coventry City's Marcus Hall grabbed the only goal of the game in front of 5,534 fans.

Afterwards he said: "It wasn't the best game, but I will definitely remember my night at Adams Park. It was a great feeling when it went in. I've never even scored for my club before except in reserve matches.

"They were really defensive and we found it hard to break them down but just managed to scrape a win in the end."

Sheffield United's Wayne Quinn also hit the crossbar in a rare highlight towards the end of the game.