

Year we've seen it all

OFFICIAL LINES

By Wycombe Wanderers
Official Supporters Club

AS this is my last column of the year I thought I would take a look back and to say we experienced the full range of emotions during the year is no exaggeration, writes Keith Blagbrough.

From despair at the beginning, to the first signs of hope that we would escape relegation, to the realisation that we had finally done so at Stockport (their fans must have wondered why we were celebrating so madly when we'd lost the game), to the emotion of the tribute we paid Elton John at Watford, to the pride in reaching our highest league position ever and then to the hurt we all felt at Basingstoke.

After all that lot, who would be a Wycombe Wanderers supporter? The question is rhetorical because I am and will continue to be, as I'm sure everyone reading this will be.

We are looking forward to a run of results just as good as we had in the second half of last season to take us up the league.

Members of the committee have recently had another meeting with the board.

At these meetings, we put points which supporters wish to be brought to the club's attention and discuss them in a non-confrontational atmosphere with the board members.

For example fans in the Woodland Stand will be pleased to note that the leaking roof, condensation, seats with a restricted view and the sound system were included on the agenda.

We also discuss safety matters and on this occasion discussed the access to the upper car park where spectators mingle with cars in a potentially dangerous situation especially in the wet weather.

Looking through the minutes, 21 items appeared, far too many for this column, but if you have any points you think should be made we can bring them to the attention of the board and they do listen.

Rena will be taking bookings as usual in the foyer of the Vere Suite before and after tomorrow's match for coach travel to Millwall and Southend (again).

You can also book by telephone on (01296) 429307.

Finally there's a date for your diary. On January 29 we will be holding a quiz night at Adams Park.

Watch the programme and this space for further details.
