

Are you inter dream teams? Blues move kick-off for church

YOU'VE discussed it in the pub – now discuss it on the internet. Who would be in your all-time Wycombe Wanderers dream team?

Who is the best goalkeeper, striker or centre half that has ever graced the turf at Adams Park or Loakes Park?

Would any of Neil Smillie's current team get a look in if the best all-time X1 was picked?

Would England B winger Steve Guppy get the nod? What about Tony Horseman the club's greatest ever goalscorer? Or Mark West?

Does Miquel Desouza's record number of league goals make him a certainty in the side?

How about goalkeepers. Who was the best? Paul Hyde maybe, or John Maskell?

And would you be able to pick a Wanderers team without midfield fixture Dave Carroll?

Vote for your team now by visiting our web site (<http://www.bucksfreepress.co.uk>). We will publish the final results in the BFP for all readers to see.

There are no set rules as to whom you pick. If you've seen them play and you think they are the best in that position then pick them. Work on a traditional 4-4-2 system with four outfield subs and a goalie on the bench.

WANDERERS have bowed to pressure from the church and moved the kick off time of this afternoon's match against third-placed Grimsby.

The Quid-a-Kid match will now kick off at 3.05pm instead of 3pm – the time that The Bible states Jesus died on the cross.

It is Blues' first Mufti Day with under-16s wearing a Verco home shirt getting in free.

Grimsby will be backed by 1,000 travelling fans for their first visit to Adams Park.

The Auto Windscreen Shield finalists have not won in four matches and lost at home to struggling Luton in midweek.

But today they are expected to welcome back striker Lee Nogan after his groin strain and right back John McDermott after his hamstring injury.

Blues will hope to get through the match without any injuries. They are training on Sunday before travelling up to Oldham during the evening for Monday's fixture at Oldham where they will be hoping to record their third double of the season.

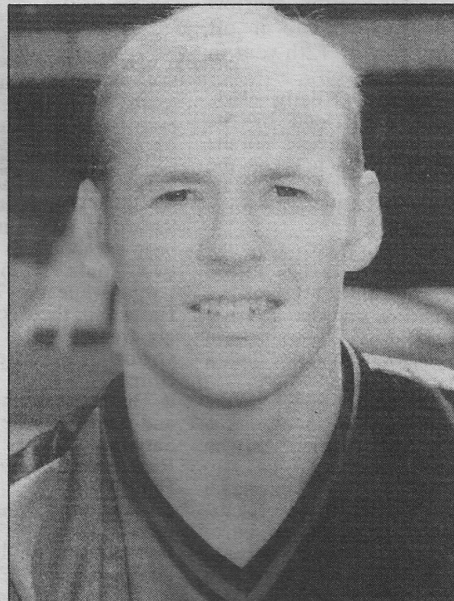

But Oldham's home record of 12 wins so far this season is what has kept them out of the relegation zone this term.

Possible: Dave Carroll

Possible: Paul McCarthy

Possible: Keith Ryan

Who's your choice?

VOTING starts this week to find the Laurent Perrier/Bucks Free Press Wycombe Wanderers Player of the Year.

Mickey Bell won it by a landslide last year but this season's contest threatens to be much closer.

No-one has ever won it twice. But past winners Dave Carroll and Steve Brown are both definitely in with a shout of breaking that record this year after the season they have had.

But they can expect stiff competition from Wanderers stalwart and new club captain Keith Ryan. His performances this term have attracted the interest of Premiership clubs Aston Villa and Leicester.

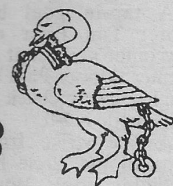

But while Rhino has been taking the end of season plaudits, the man he replaced as captain, Paul McCarthy, was arguably the most consistent performer until his hernia operation. His performances at the heart of the defence won over John Gregory and even had the former Blues manager recommending him for an Eire B cap.

Whoever wins this year's trophy is down to you the readers, simply fill in the form on the right with your choice.

We will tot up the votes and if you vote for the eventual winner your name will be entered into a draw to present the trophy on the pitch before the Chesterfield match on April 25.
