BRUCE Grobbelaar's first appearance for Chesham United helped the Generals get off to a dream start in their Ryman League campaign while Wycombe Wanderers' nightmare continued as they went bottom of Division Two.

continue their worst-ever start since joining the Football League.

Manager Neil Smillie even ordered his players back for training on Sunday after Blues suffered their third successive league defeat the previous day.

The Blues boss fumed: "It was the sort of performance I don't want to see again. There was a lack of passion and desire, some of our players looked as though they couldn't perform twice in a week."

But down the road at Chesham, it was all smiles as Grobbelaar kept a clean sheet in United's 2-0 win over Enfield.

A delighted Generals boss Graham Roberts was full of praise for his side saying: "We are going to get better."
