stunning goals past Lincoln keeper Bruce Grobbelaar as Wycombe won 4-1 and moved within three points of the safety zone.

Afterwards the 21-year-old wonder boy said: "I hope Arsene Wenger sees the goals on television and is kicking himself.

"I chatted with him on my last day and that was it.

But now his heart is with Wycombe and the Blues' brightest prospect for years is promising there's even better to come.

He said: "I've scored better goals before in non-league football but scoring past Bruce Grobbelaar was very nice."
