

Defender's future uncertain as Scunthorpe make a bid

Is Mohan on the move?

DEFENDER Nicky Mohan is wondering whether he has still got an Adams Park future after it emerged that Wanderers were prepared to sell him to third division Scunthorpe.

The clubs agreed an undisclosed fee but the deal collapsed when Scunthorpe cheekily tried to take him on a month's loan first. They were also some way off agreeing personal terms.

REPORT

By Dave Peters

Mohan was suspended for the Boxing Day match at Walsall and then left out of the squad for Monday's victory over Chesterfield and the situation has left him feeling unsure about his future.

He said: "I've got 18 months of my contract left. I hadn't planned to go anywhere but football changes very quickly. I was surprised that Wycombe were prepared to let me go. It takes you back when something like that happens.

"I was in the team until I was suspended for the Walsall game and then wasn't involved against Chesterfield. I didn't expect to play against Chesterfield because after the good result at Walsall the team picked itself, but not to be involved at all was surprising."

Smillie said: "He's part of the squad. He's got 18 months of his contract to run unless someone else comes in with an offer, he's no different to anyone else in that respect. Everyone has their price. We're not flush with cash."

Smillie is unhappy that Scunthorpe's interest was leaked on the internet and reached Mohan before the boss had discussed it with him.