

Cleaned-up Blues could be quids in

WANDERERS are on course to avoid the FA's £20,000 suspended fine after cleaning up their disciplinary record in recent weeks.

The Blues have not picked up any bookings or sendings off this month and have amassed 276 disciplinary points this season compared to 395 this time last season.

Secretary Keith Allen said: "Our disciplinary record is better but it's still not as good as we'd like."

Last season the FA ordered Wycombe to clean up their act after the Chairboys topped the foul play league with 101 bookings and five dismissals which totalled up to 441 disciplinary points.

Jason Cousins and Michael Simpson are this season's most frequent offenders. Cousins has had five bookings and two red cards while Simpson has been booked seven times and sent off once.

● The Canadian international team are keeping tabs on Wanderers defender Mark Rogers.

They sent their representative Paul James to Adams Park last Saturday to have a chat with the 24-year-old who has forced his way into the first team squad this season after demanding a trial.

● Soccer sweethearts Claire and Stephen Walker who spent their wedding day at Adams Parks watching Wycombe against Oxford will cut their Florida honeymoon short so they can revisit the ground where their romance started.

The couple, who married at Aylesbury last Saturday

FA may waive big fine and then hired Blues' team bus to take them and their guests to the match, will fly back from America just in time to race down the M4 to watch Wanderers at Cardiff on March 3, in a match which is all-ticket for Wycombe fans.

The couple first met on a Blues supporters bus going to Ninian Park six years ago and are determined to see their first away match as a married couple there as well.

And the newlyweds have forgiven Joey Beauchamp for taking the shine off their big day by scoring Oxford's winner last Saturday.

Claire said: "We've forgiven him. He was right Oxford need the points more than Wycombe do and we still had a fantastic day we wouldn't have done it any differently."

● Blues are holding a half-term Junior Supporters Day at Wanderers in Town in the Octagon Shopping Centre on Thursday. Fans will have the opportunity to meet the players at around 2pm, and under-16s will get free goody bags.

● Veteran midfielder Dave Carroll has been described as better than Pele by Sky sports pundits after his brilliant free kick goal in the 3-1 win at Wrexham 13 days ago.

● The Official Supporters Club's race night raised £1,500 for the youth team's proposed tour to Norway.

Hands up if you're staying here: Chris Vinnicombe has signed up again

New deal for defender Vinnicombe

CHRIS Vinnicombe has signed a new contract keeping him at Adams Park for the next two seasons.

The former Exeter, Glasgow Rangers and Burnley left back put pen to paper last week after being offered new terms.

Boss Lawrie Sanchez

said: "I'm pleased to get him signed up. He's done well since he's been here and I didn't want to lose him. I didn't want to be chasing around in the summer not knowing whether he'd still be with us."

The extension of 29-year-old Vinnicombe's contract means that keeper Martin Taylor is the only first team player not signed up for next season.

Sanchez plans to talk to him later but, with Blues having to show restraint with wages while the takeover is still just talk, his future could be unclear.
