like to think I've got a chance. I proved myself a couple of years ago when I got my one and only B cap at Barnet. Now I've gone a league higher and I've proved myself again by breaking the club record here."

He added: "It hasn't really sunk in yet. I think it's something I'll only appreciate when my career is over and I look back on what I've achieved. I am sure it will then be something very special."

But boss Lawrie Sanchez won't let him rest on his laurels. He now wants his star shooter to go on and bag 30 goals this season.
