

Senda and Rogers sign new deals as four others leave

DANNY Senda and Mark Rogers have signed two-year extensions to their contracts keeping them at Adams Park until the summer of 2000.

Boss Lawrie Sanchez signed them up after being impressed with the way they have performed since breaking into his first team squad this season.

But striker Richard Thompson and utility player Lee Holsgrove have gone in manager Lawrie Sanchez's end of season cull along with Eddie Gray and Nicky Leach who never made it into his first team.

● Wanderers have already taken £200,000 in season ticket sales.

● Thames Fiat won the first corporate six-a-side tournament at Adams Park last Monday and were presented with the Vauxhall Car and Van Rental Trophy by Sanchez and chairman Ivor Beeks.

● Boss Sanchez tipped Jermaine McSparran to go on and play in the Premier League after watching his starlet score another belter in the win at Cambridge.

He said: "He's so exciting he makes you get out of your seat. He's got the ability to go right to the top."

McSparran finished his first full season in professional football with 12 goals.

Taylor is the choice, if you're wondering

FOR any BFP readers who may have been left wondering the result of the BFP/Delbeck Wanderers Player of the Year, keeper Martin Taylor was the narrow winner.

Last week, after printing a picture of Taylor on our back page, we told readers to turn inside for the full story. Unfortunately, we forgot to put the story inside.

So, a week later, we can report that Taylor pipped striker Sean Devine to the title after the closest vote in the competition's history.

The 33-year-old beat 23-goal Devine by two votes. Midfielder Dave Carroll was third.

Boss Lawrie Sanchez said: "He's had a marvellous season and is one of the best keepers in this division."

Taylor admitted: "It means a lot to be appreciated by the fans."
