BURY GOOD

Wanderers defy odds to win

LAWRIE Sanchez praised his patched-up troops as they overcame the club's worst ever injury and suspension crisis to beat Bury 2-1 on Saturday.

Wanderers had nine players missing through injury and suspension but their understrength team showed tremendous character to shake off the Shakers with a last-minute winner and move up to sixth in the table.

Afterwards Sanchez said: "It was a very good win under the circumstances. You've got to give credit to the team and it says a lot for them.

"You don't want to go on about injuries but to win when you've got so many regulars missing is an excellent effort.

"This time last year if we'd had those players missing we'd have struggled. Now, even before the game, I was confident because there is no-one in the squad I've got to worry about, and this time next year we will be even stronger."

Wanderers won it with a dramatic double from veteran defender Jamie

Bates who answered his manager's rallying call.

Sanchez said: "I told the experienced players they had to help the younger lads through and they did."

Wanderers are over the worst of their player crisis now with Jermaine McSparran and Steve Brown both free from the suspensions that ruled them out of Saturday's game and midfielder Dannie Bulman at last beginning to show signs of a recovery from his sore toe.
