

New signing raring to go as Blues look to bounce back from mauling

MARSH SET TO START

Make that three: Walsall celebrate as Pedro Matias hits his third to complete his hat-trick against Wycombe on Saturday

NEW signing Chris Marsh will make his Wycombe debut at home to Millwall tonight (ko 7.45pm) as Wanderers look to bounce back from Saturday's 5-1 mauling at Walsall.

The £30,000 right-back, recruited from Walsall, missed that defeat – the heaviest of manager Lawrie Sanchez's reign – because The Saddlers inserted a clause in the deal prohibiting him from playing against them.

Now Marsh is itching to start against a Millwall side

FOOTBALL
By Dave Peters

who will go top if they win.

The 31-year-old said: "It was disappointing not to be able to play against my old club but I'm looking forward to getting started against Millwall. I've been at Walsall all my life and this is the fresh challenge that I need."

Meanwhile Sanchez is calling on his shellshocked side to get Saturday's defeat out of their system.

He said: "You're only as good as your last result. At this moment I'm a crap manager, hopefully by Tuesday I'll be good again."

"I'm disappointed to lose 5-1 but something like this was always going to happen with all what's been going on in the cup. It's happened, there's nothing we can do about it, we've got to put it out of our minds."

New striker Guy Whittingham looks set to make his first start alongside Andy Rammell after being a substitute at Walsall, but Steve Brown is still out serving the final game of his four-match ban.

● Match report: Page 38