

Clegg signs up for more

WANDERERS have extended the loan of Manchester United reserve striker George Clegg until the end of the season.

The 20-year-old signed the extension over the weekend and joined up with the squad for Sunday's flight to Spain.

Clegg, who scored seven times in five reserve matches for Alex Ferguson's second string, failed to open his Wanderers account in his first month but Wycombe were keen to keep him around with Sunday's semi-final and their hectic end-of-season run-in to think about.

Manager Lawrie Sanchez said: "We need as many bodies around the place as possible."

Coach pick-up

WANDERERS Official Supporters Club are taking 60 coaches to Villa Park next Sunday carrying 3,000 fans in total.

Secretary Keith Blagbrough said: "It will be quite a convoy."

Supporters getting on coaches up at Cressex are reminded that their pick up point is the junction of Coronation Road and Turnpike Road on the Cressex Industrial Estate.
