

Boss plans a double strike

WANDERERS boss Lawrie Sanchez will take in two games tomorrow as he steps up his search for a new striker.

The boss will dash between the two matches before linking up with the squad for Sunday's televised match at Huddersfield.

Sanchez won't reveal where he is going but it is known that neither match involves teams in Wycombe's division.

The boss decided to take to the road himself after watching Finnish forward Justus Vajanne flop during his trial match for the reserves in their 2-0 defeat against Barnet on Wednesday.

DAVE PETERS

FOOTBALL

The 6ft 2in Atlantis striker was flown in for the match by his agent Edwin Stein but looked out of his depth and has been sent back to Scandinavia.

Sanchez said: "Stein flew him over and paid the cost so we thought he must be worth a look but there's no such thing as a gift horse as we found out."

The 24-year-old import showed no sign of the form that has earned him caps at under-18, U21 and U23 level.

The no-nonsense boss also bombed out fellow triallist Lee Canoville after the Barnet match.

The former Arsenal defender, who spent the last two weeks training with Blues, hobbled off with an ankle injury midway through the defeat and was then told "thanks but no thanks."

Sanchez said: "He's ok but he's no better than what we've already got."

But it is the striker situation that is Sanchez's chief concern at the moment.

He still has one six figure bid in at the moment and is hoping something may come of that.

He said: "It hasn't been rejected out of hand it's a question of call my bluff. It's an on-going situation."

But he denied reports coming out of Wales that he has made a twin raid on Cardiff City for their strikers Kevin Nugent and Leo Fortune West, although he admits both players have been discussed.

He said: "Kevin Nugent was one we looked at. But I want to bring down the age of my squad. I would like more mobility."

"Fortune West is more mobile. But I don't know how much he is on. Anyone who has joined Cardiff will be on big money and it would be very difficult to compete with that. I haven't made a bid for him."

He has also cooled on the idea of bringing in a Premiership reserve striker on loan.

He said: "I would rather someone like Gavin Holligan played. I want to bring in two new players but I'm not going to panic. We're seventh in the table, we've scored eight goals. We're ahead of schedule."

Finn-ished: Triallist Justus Vajanne made a brief appearance for Blues

Ref: 01-2324BF5