Gibbo wants to do a Fergie

ASSISTANT boss Terry Gibson wants to do an Alex Ferguson and never speak to the press again.

Gibson said: "Lawrie always sends me out to talk to the media when we lose and does it himself when we win. I'd be happy not speaking to them again."

● Football in the Community officer Nas Bashir is leaving the Blues to become a coach with Reading's Academy.

● Wanderers winger Stuart Roberts was watched by an army of fans from his old club Swansea last Saturday.

Some 48 Swans missed their team's own game at Mansfield and chartered a coach to see their favourite son star in Wycombe's 5-3 win over Brentford.

● Boss Lawrie Sanchez says Saturday's 5-3 win over Brentford will make other clubs sit up and take notice.

"If other managers weren't thinking about us before, that result will make them sit up and take notice of us now.

"They will see that our promotion push has got legs. It would have been easy having played poorly last week to have lost again after being 2-0 down."

But he refused to get carried away.

He said: "We're aiming for sixth place. It's as simple as that. Great result as it was it's only three points. It's only one result and we've got to maintain that for the next 25 games.

"We've only been beaten four times and to reach this stage of the season and be beaten fewer times than Manchester United is a major achievement by any club.

Kids' tough tie

WANDERERS' have been drawn at home to Norwich City in the fourth round of the FA Youth Cup.

Boss Gary Goodchild said: "We wanted one of the glamour teams but haven't got it. It's a hard draw but we're at home and we've got a chance."

The match must be played before January 26 and Goodchild is hoping it will be squeezed in before he leaves the club to return to be with his family in Norway on December 22.
