

Harris signs on with a debut goal as the reserves win

NEW signing Richard Harris scored for the reserves and had another disallowed as Wanderers notched their first victory of the year in the Avon Insurance Combination with a 3-2 success over Brentford.

The muscular striker only signed on the morning of the match but that did not stop him making a dream start to his Wycombe career.

He said: "All strikers want to get their first goal at a club and I'm just so happy to have started with a goal. That's what I've come here to do and I know I can keep scoring if I get the opportunities.

"I've always scored goals and I'm confident that I can here.

"It was a bit hard coming in not knowing the boys and I know I can do better. I've got a lot more to offer. I've scored six or seven in my last few games so my form has come at a good time."

And as well as opening his account the 21-year-old former Crystal Palace hitman revealed that he has a massive long throw on him.

Reserve boss Terry Gibson said: "That's a complete bonus to us. We saw what his finishing was like when he scored three goals against us for Palace reserves last week but we didn't know he could throw the ball in like that.

Debut goal: Richard Harris

"It is a major weapon and can give you instant attacking situations. His throw is as good as a corner and Andy Rammell will be licking his lips."

The reserves took the lead on 26 minutes through Gavin Holligan but the visitors drew level before the break with the first of two penalties which Mark McCammon fired beyond Mark Osborn.

But Wycombe equalised on 65 minutes when Harris tucked in Jermaine McSporran's cross-cum-shot.

Harris' long throw then caused panic in the Brentford box and from the resultant corner Paul Emblen smashed in the winner.
