

Garns is back for the Vale

FORMER Blackburn star Simon Garner will be back at Adams Park on Saturday, December 14 signing copies of his autobiography There's Only One Simon Garner.

In the book the former Blackburn hero tells of his time at Adams Park and gives a no-holds-barred reflection on the club during the Alan Smith era.

Supporters will be able to meet the colourful striker, who once spent a spell at Her Majesty's Pleasure, before the Port Vale game from 1.30pm only.

Club spokesman Alan Hutchinson said: "It's a great read."
