

Dell's delight

BEACONSFIELD SYCOB defender Steve Dell has been invited to link up with Wycombe Wanderers for pre-season training.

The right back has impressed playing on trial in reserve matches for the Blues and Adams. Park boss Lawrie Sanchez wants to run the rule over him again in pre-season training.

Sanchez is also keen to extend the offer to released Blackburn forward Andy Bell, who scored a hat-trick while on trial for Blues reserves but then missed a trial match against Chelsea, which had been specially arranged for him, because he went down with food poisoning.

But Blues could miss out on a third triallist. Ex-QPR left back Danny Murphy, is trialling with Swindon.

Getting shirty

WANDERERS have set a deadline of noon on Monday for people to bid the £60,000 needed to sponsor next season's kit. Call Rod Tomlin on 01494 472100 or Mark Austin on 01494 538461.

● Ron Barnett: Page 14. Letters: See Midweek

Friendly dates

BLUES have arranged pre-season friendlies at home to Spurs on July 19, at Aylesbury on July 26 and at home to Watford on August 2.