

WYCOMBE WANDERERS FC

Devine debt hangs over Exeter

WYCOMBE Wanderers are still waiting for monies owed to them from the transfer of Sean Devine to Exeter City.

Wycombe banked £10,000 when the deal was first drawn up and are now owed another £10,000 after Sean made 20 appearances for the Grecians.

The matter is now in the hands of the Football League who will consider the use of the parachute payment due to Exeter. The club are due £100,000 after being relegated from Division Three but creditors debts are likely to swallow up any payment due.

■ Wanderers are holding a free open day on Sunday, July 27, from 11am until 3pm at the Causeway Stadium, giving fans a chance to take a tour of the ground, meet some of the staff and see the players training on the pitch.

There is also a car up for grabs in the club's 10th Anniversary Draw.

■ The Blues have been told they are to receive just 756 tickets for the trip to Brighton on Boxing Day.

Ticket prices will be £21 for adults and £13 for under 16's & senior citizens, including a £3 travel voucher.

There is no parking at the ground but a park and ride service is free. Further details of when these tickets are available to purchase will be announced via the official website www.wycombewanderers.co.uk