
Chairman Beeks will decide whether Dell can join the Wanderers

WANDERERS boss Lawrie Sanchez will sit down with the chairman this week to see if there is any money available to bring Steve Dell into the club.

The Beaconsfield SYCOB right back has impressed in a series of trial games, culminating in his solid 60-minute appearance in place of Danny Senda in Saturday's 2-1 win over local rivals Watford.

Afterwards Sanchez said: "He's a solid defender. He's got a long throw and he's a tough tackler and he ain't the slowest. He has only done himself plenty of favours."

But his future will be decided by Blues chairman Ivor Beeks.

Sanchez said: "Dell has done very well. I can't fault him. I've got to him this week and talk to the chairman. Money is tight but I will talk to him and see if anything can be sorted out."

● Swan FM have confirmed they will not be providing live commentary on Wanderers matches this season after sponsors Spearmint Rhino decided not to renew their sponsorship. Swan are now hoping to attract a new sponsor in a bid to save the commentaries.
