

Patterson breaks his duck and now wants more

SIMON Patterson scored his first ever league goal in Blues' 3-2 defeat at Blackpool on Saturday and is hoping it is the first of many.

The on-loan Watford striker broke his duck when he got his head on the end of a first half Darren Currie free-kick and looped the ball over stranded 'Pool keeper Lee Jones.

He said: "It was a great moment to score my first goal and hopefully now I've scored I can keep it running."

But he was kicking himself that he didn't finish the day with a hat-trick.

He said: "I should have had two before, particularly the one when I was six yards out and didn't get a good connection."

But the edge was taken off his day when Steve McMahon's side battled back from two goals down to win 3-2.

Patterson said: "I'm feeling down now. It's not the way I wanted my first goal to be."
