

Brown is red-faced at calls to be the boss

WANDERERS ace Steve Brown says he is embarrassed when fans chant for him and Keith Ryan to be the manager.

He said: "It's flattering that people hold me in such high regard but we have already got a manager here and it is embarrassing for me.

"The manager is the right person for the club and we need to everyone to pull together."

● Boss Lawrie Sanchez has reassured Eire U19 regular Ian Simpemba that he still has a future at Wycombe despite being farmed out to Conference side Woking.

Sanchez said: "We will be monitoring him closely at Woking and he far from out of our long-term plans.

● Aston Villa's Dion Dublin had a double reunion on Tuesday. He came to Wycombe on loan when he was a youngster at Cambridge and he was also reunited with Craig Faulconbridge, who used to be his boot cleaner when he was at Coventry.

● Wanderers Ladies entertain Luton Belles in the second qualifying round of the Women's FA Cup on Sunday (ko 2pm). The match takes place at Causeway Stadium, which is still referred to as Adams Park by the fans.

● Wanderers did get their hands on the Carling Cup this week but only for a photocall.

The competition's new sponsors brought the famous three-handled trophy to Wycombe for their pre-match press conference on Monday.
