

Moore of the same for Luke

Luke Moore

LUKE Moore opened his Wycombe Wanderers goalscoring account in Saturday's 2-0 win over Bournemouth on the same day that his brother Stefan was opening the scoring for Aston Villa in their 2-0 win at Blackburn.

The brothers have been blazing a trail of glory for Villa's reserve team but chose Saturday to make their mark on the first team stage.

And in another amazing family double the brothers both got booked as well with Luke, on a month's loan from the Villains, getting his yellow card for over-celebrating his goal.

But nothing was going to spoil his day.

He said: "It's been a great day. It was great to get my first league goal but the points are more important.

"I got a bit carried away. It was my first league goal and I wanted to celebrate with the fans."

Moore, who is among a very rare breed of strikers in that he doesn't keep a tally of his goals, jumped at the opportunity of joining Wanderers on a month's loan.

He said: "The chance of working with Tony Adams was a massive factor. I wanted to get league experience and the chance to learn from someone like him was very important. He can tell me what defenders don't like. I have already learned a lot off him and I want to learn a lot more.

"I just want to help Wycombe get up the table."

As well as his goal Moore showed plenty of good movement and deft running but Blues boss Tony Adams reckons fans haven't seen anything of his true talent yet.

He said: "You've not seen the real Luke Moore yet."

Johnson's booking is overturned

DEFENDER Roger Johnson has had his yellow card at Mansfield overturned by referee Paul Taylor.

Johnson was booked for bringing down Stags' Lee Williamson in the last minute of injury time during the FA Cup second replay and was still protesting his innocence as Liam Lawrence scored the penalty which gave Mansfield a 3-2 win.

But after reviewing the incident on video, Taylor rescinded the booking.

And while that means Johnson is now eligible to play against Grimsby on January 3, it has done nothing to quell his anger over the penalty decision which cost Blues a home tie against Burnley.
