

Billy's now at SYCOB's Beck and call

STRIKER Billy Harding, who started this season by scoring against Tottenham has gone on loan to Beaconsfield SYCOB.

The youth team goal-grabber is hoping the move will help him to recapture the form which brought him two substitute appearances earlier in the season.

He has been joined at Beaconsfield by reserve and youth team centre half Stuart Hole. Both have gone on what is being termed as work experience.

Meanwhile youth teamer Leon Gordon has joined Ruislip Manor on the same terms.

● Wanderers boss Tony Adams bleep-tested his squad on Monday.

● Wycombe Wanderers Independent Supporters Club are holding a quiz night in the Vere Suite on Thursday, January 22, at 7.30pm.

It costs £2 per person to enter and teams should consist of no more than six people.

● The fans forum scheduled for Thursday February 12 has been moved again.

The new date is now Thursday, February 26, in the Vere Suite at 7.30pm.

● Former Doctor Who actor and Wanderers fan Colin Baker expresses his views regarding The Chairboys on page six of today's Free Press

Tyson: I will be back for 'Pool

ON-LOAN Nathan Tyson has told Wanderers fans: 'Don't write me off, I'm coming back.'

The Reading striker lasted just 61 minutes of his star spangled debut against Grimsby last week before being crocked by Grimsby hardman Tony Crane and has now been sent back to The Madejski Stadium for treatment.

But the knee ligament injury is not as bad as was first feared and the 21-year-old former England U20 international is now hoping to return for Blues' home clash against Blackpool in eight days, although boss Tony Adams reckons he could be two weeks away from a return.

He said: "I was in such pain when I did the injury and thought it was a lot more serious but it has just got better and better."

Tyson had laid on two goals for hat-trick hero Luke Moore when Crane took the law into his own hands to stop him.

He said: "It was a bad challenge and I'm sure their player wanted to hurt me."

Tyson, who has signed up

Goalmaker: Nathan Tyson made two goals on his debut for a month, has already started running and flexing his knee by kicking a soft ball.

He said: "It's very frustrating being out. I really enjoyed my debut for Wycombe and it was great to be playing football again. I was like a kid in a sweet shop. I was so happy just to be playing again and I was gutted when I had to go off."

His injury is just the latest setback in a saga that has gone from fairytale to nightmare for the pacy frontman in 12 months.

He seemed to have the world at his feet when he scored twice for England U20s against Germany last season but since then he has lost his place in Reading's first team and been dumped on the transfer list by Royals' new boss Steve Coppell.

Tyson said: "I don't want to be on the transfer list. It hurts because I'm from the area and I supported Reading as a kid and used to watch them play and now I'm being phased out of it."

Tyson would jump at the chance of returning to Division One with Reading but says if that doesn't happen Wycombe would not be a bad second choice.

The father-of-two said: "Wycombe would interest me. It is a good club and not far from my home which is important because I want to stay around."

Reading would ask a fee for Tyson. He has scored ten goals in ten reserve games this season but still hasn't been able to force his way into Coppell's plans.

He said: "I can't predict the future. All I can do is work on the present and my only goal at the moment is getting fit for the Blackpool game."

"My Wycombe career isn't over yet. I'll be back."