

Tyson: Relegation or not, Wanderers swap is the right decision

NATHAN Tyson insists he made the right move swapping first division Reading for Wanderers even though Saturday's 1-1 draw with Notts County pushed Wycombe closer to Division Three.

Their failure to take all three points has left them 13 points adrift of safety and needing a miracle to retain their second division status.

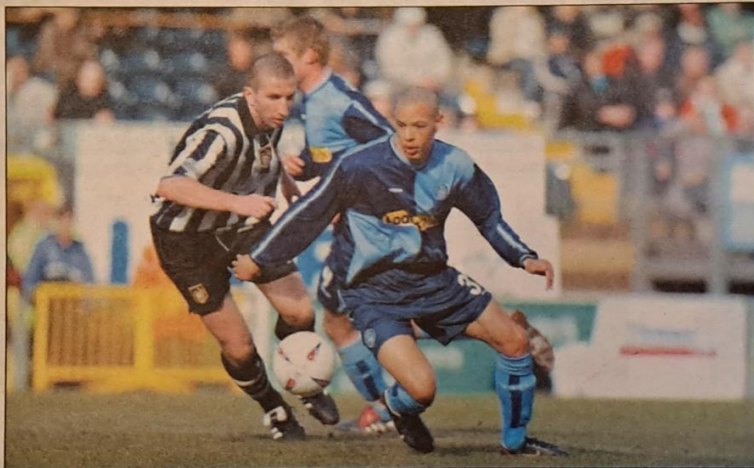

But the 21-year-old striker, who put pen to paper on a two-year deal on Thursday after a successful loan spell, is convinced he has made the right decision.

He said: "Sometimes you have to take a step backwards to go forward."

A year ago Tyson scored for England U20s and was attracting the interest of top-flight clubs, but when Royals boss Alan Pardew left to join West Ham, Tyson fell out of favour at Reading.

He said: "It was hard because I come from Reading and have always supported them."

"But Tony Adams has shown a lot faith in me and that's an honour coming from someone like him."

Turn for the better: Saturday's goalscorer Nathan Tyson is glad to be a Wycombe player Ref: 04-684 P06

"I want to play first team football and he has given me that chance."

"I still think we can get out of trouble, but if we do end up in the third division I'll get on with it. This is my team now."

Tyson marked his first appearance as a full time Wanderer with their equalising goal after accepting a gift from County keeper Pegguy Arphexad who dropped a Darren Currie cross at his feet.

But Tyson was disappointed with his contribution after skewing a glancing header wide and failing to meet a brilliant Danny Senda cross.

"I should have had a hat-trick," he said.
