

Ups and downs in the life of Reilly

ANDY Reilly has signed his first professional deal with the club.

The 18-year-old prospect put pen to paper on a year-long deal that replaces the third and final year of his scholarship.

The deal ends an up-and-down week for the left back who has made five first team appearances this season.

On Tuesday he missed out on being called-up for the Scottish Under 21 squad to face Romania next week.

Reilly who came on as a substitute for the U21s against Hungary at Livingston last month was in coach Rainer Bonhoff's original squad for the game but was left out when it was trimmed down.
