

Blooming great

MATT Bloomfield scored his first Blues goal last week and was then told he was ahead of his time by boss Tony Adams.

Adams described Bloomers as 'one for the future' when he signed him from Ipswich but the midfielder wasn't happy to bide his time in the reserves and has forced his way into the first team.

Adams said: "I wasn't going to play him all season but he has made it very hard for me not to pick him. He's pushed his way in."

Bloomfield said: "The manager told me he saw me as being one for next season but I wasn't happy with that.

"I'm not a very patient person. I wanted to play this year."