

Nethercott signs and wants a striker to follow

DEFENDER Stuart Nethercott put pen to paper on a two-year deal this week and then begged manager Tony Adams to sign a striker.

The former Tottenham and Millwall player was at Wycombe on loan last season and he reckons they can bounce straight back to the division they were relegated from last season, proving they sign a striker to partner the explosive Nathan Tyson.

"I know the gaffer is working really hard to bring someone in and I'm keeping my fingers crossed that he can. We cannot just rely on Tyson, we need a big man to be used as a battering ram for him."

Meanwhile Nethercott was happy to complete his negotiations.

He said: "I am delighted to put this to bed. My time spent here last season was most enjoyable, despite being relegated.

"There were always a number of options at the end of last season but I always felt it would be Wycombe, if a deal could be struck."
