

TYSON TALK IS ALL COBBLERS

Staying Put: Nathan Tyson, in action in Saturday's 1-1 draw at Northampton, says talk of him moving on is pure speculation

TONY Adams laughed off speculation linking star striker Nathan Tyson with a move to the Premiership and said I haven't heard anything.

The story began in a northern newspaper linking Tyson with Premiership new boys Crystal Palace or West Brom after Wycombe beat Chester.

But Adams said, after Saturday's 1-1 draw at League Two title favourites Northampton which extended Blues unbeaten start to three games, "There's been no approach or anything at all."

Tyson who set up Wycombe's goal for Ian Stonebridge was also in the dark.

He said: "I've heard the rumours but as far as I'm concerned that's all it is. I've spoken with my agent and he knows nothing about it."

Meanwhile Adams was more concerned that his side dropped their first two points of the season in Saturday's top of the table affair against Colin Calderwood's Cobblers.

The Blues looked set to make it three wins out of three when Stonebridge put them in front in the first half only for The Cobblers, who had Fred Murray sent off for a foul on Tyson, to come back strongly and equalise in the second half.

Adams was disappointed with Blues' second half and warned that performances of just 45 minutes long will not be good enough to get them promoted.

He said: "The first half was excellent. We were solid, compact and didn't look like we'd get beat, but the second half was a bit of a change.

"We stopped playing to our strengths. It became a gung-ho sort of game.

"There was plenty to worry me second half. If we play like that I don't think we are going to go anywhere. It was erratic pushing up chasing into channels. We've got to play to our strengths."

He also blamed tiredness

Adams said: "We didn't get back from Chester until 3am and physically that showed.
