

Williamson in fitness race

BLUES are hoping defender Mike Williamson will be fit for Saturday's match at home to Swansea.

He played through the pain barrier at Southend after receiving a whack on his ankle.

He completed the match but left the ground on crutches with Blues fearing he had sustained ligament damage.

But it turns out the injury is not too serious and Blues hope he will be able to face Swansea.
