

Charlie's happy to be a part of the Adams family

Two's company: Charlie Comyn-Platt in action at Aldershot

WANNABE centre half Charlie-Comyn-Platt is used to training with former Real Madrid defender Ivan Campo at Bolton Wanderers – but the chance to come and learn from the master was too good to resist.

The Bolton Wanderers reserve said he couldn't turn down the chance to join Wanderers on loan and now his sights set on cementing a second month on loan.

He said: "When I heard Tony Adams was interested I couldn't say no to that.

"I'm here for a month and learning all the time from him. I hope it can be renewed."

The 18-year-old has featured in Bolton's first team four times already this season and he believes a spell under Adams can only help his career prospects.
