

Austin joins Rangers

MARK Austin has been appointed commercial director of Championship side QPR after being made redundant by Wycombe Wanderers.

Austin, who pulled in more than £7 million in his capacity as Blues' director of sales and marketing, accepted voluntary redundancy after 13 years with Wycombe.