

Former international trains with Blues

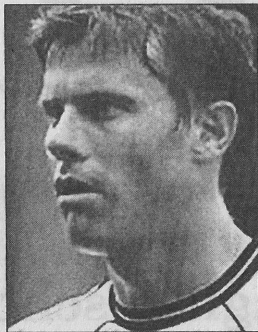

FORMER England international Rob Lee joined the Blues for training yesterday and could be in line for shock comeback with John Gorman's side.

Midfielder Lee, who celebrated his 39th birthday ten days ago, joined Gorman's squad at Bisham Abbey yesterday in the hope of extending his illustrious career.

Lee played 21 times for his country and has made more than 665 appearances in a career spanning Charlton Athletic, Newcastle United, Derby County and West Ham United.

He arrives at Wanderers after being released by Oldham Athletic.

And he could be joined in the Wanderers' training camp by another ex-international next week.

Robert Lee

Former Chelsea, Glasgow Rangers and QPR goalscorer John Spencer is set to link up with the Blues squad.

The 34-year-old, who made

14 appearances for his country, is also eyeing a League comeback after returning to these shores from a spell in the United States.

Gorman said: "We will let them train with us and see how they do.

"We will have a look at them and see what develops. Age doesn't worry me. It worries other people but if they can still play that is all that worries me.

"They are looking for clubs and just having them in and around the place training with some of our younger boys will be good for the squad."

And he admitted yesterday that Lee left an excellent first impression.

He said: "He's different class.

"If things work out for him and us we could talk but it is early days yet.

"He's just joined us for training. He's not on trial. People like him don't need a trial."

Gorman has shown he has no worries about playing veterans providing they are up to the job and says he will leave no stone unturned as he bids to put his team's play-off aspirations back on the rails.

He has already signed 35-year-old winger Steve Guppy, 38-year-old striker Steve Claridge and has played veteran midfielder Keith Ryan, 34, in 14 of the club's last 15 first team fixtures.

The gaffer is keen to blend experience with youth as he showed last Saturday when he brought youth teamer Ikechi Anya on as a substitute in the 2-1 home defeat against Boston.

● Signing Steve Claridge until the end of the season has freed up another loan for the Wycombe boss.

He now has two loan signings left.

● Wanderers fans in the Supporters Trust have until February 18 to raise the £50,000 they need to secure a seat on the board.

They have so far reeled in £20,000 with the deadline just a week away and have issued a reminder to fans to sign up.

But they say if they don't raise the cash in time they will take out a loan to ensure they meet the club's deadline.

Fans can join the Trust online by visiting the website www.wwst.org or by collecting a form from the commercial office at the club.
