

Senda insists Saturday's County setback is Notts so serious

HOME-GROWN. Blues ace Danny Senda (pictured left) this week insisted Saturday's home defeat against Notts County is just a minor hiccup on the road to promotion.

He says Blues will recover from the setback of their sixth home defeat of the season starting with tomorrow's trip to play-off rivals Lincoln City.

Lincoln were dragged in for extra training on Sunday following their 1-0 defeat at Cheltenham and, although Blues boss John Gorman stopped short of that measure, Senda and his team-mates are determined to put the events of last Saturday right.

Senda said: "We were all bitterly disappointed. We've been on a great run and we were all upset.

"Notts are a good side. They came and did a job on us, but no serious damage has been done.

"We're disappointed because it was a good chance to get into the top seven and we slipped up.

"We can only put it down to a blip which we will be going all out to put right at Lincoln.

"Although we dropped three points we didn't expect to lose, there's still time to make that up and a couple of wins will put us right back up there.

"We're trying to address our home form. When we go away we are much more patient and it suits us but when we come home we want to put a show on for the fans and we are perhaps too eager to get goals that we leave ourselves loose at the back."
