

Red letter day for Blues' girls

WYCOMBE Wanderers Girls celebrated a great double achievement last Saturday with the Under 12s and Under 14s both winning their Bucks Girls leagues having gone through the season unbeaten.

The U12s wrapped up the title with a 7-0 thumping of Moretonville. Orla Diamond helped herself to four goals while Kate Hill (two) and Abbie Creed completed the whitewash.

But it was a tenser affair for the U14s.

They went into their final game of the season against title rivals Chesham knowing that just a draw would do while Chesham needed a win to nick the title from them.

Tash Smith fired Wanderers into a first half lead but Lauren Cartwright levelled things up for Chesham.

And the Chesham side almost snatched the win they needed when they hit the crossbar but Wycombe held out out to maintain their unbeaten record and take the title.

Manager Graham Malcolm said: "It was as tense as you could get it."

Meanwhile, Su Oakley scored a hat-trick as Wanderers Ladies moved up to fifth in the Southern Region Premier league with a 5-1 win over Carterton Ladies. Jody Taylor and ex-Carterton player Debbie Richard also scored.

The Ladies play their final league game on Sunday against top-of-the-table Reading Royals but also have the Chairman's Cup Final on May 15 where they will play Reading Girls.

It's a two horse race

TWO players dominated the voting in this year's Wycombe Wanderers official Player of the Year poll – and the winner will be revealed tomorrow.

The top man will be presented with the Bucks Free Press Trophy on the pitch before tomorrow's final home game of the season against Leyton Orient after three weeks of voting by the club's supporters.

There were several worthy candidates this season as Blues have battled it out on the fringe of the play-off hunt, but in the end it came down to a two horse race as you the fans went to the polls.

Free Press readers Melissa Wicks and her father John will present the award to the winning player just before the kick off.

Last year's winner was defender Roger Johnson.

Wanderers' supporters clubs are also set to present their awards tomorrow.
