

JINXED JOHNSON BEMOANS HIS LUCK

WANDERERS visit Rochdale tonight with jinxed skipper Roger Johnson hoping for a change of luck.

The defender hit the woodwork twice in two minutes during Saturday's frustrating 1-1 draw at home to Carlisle United and he is determined to make Dale pay in tonight's clash at Spotland (ko 7.45pm).

Johnson said: "I was gutted. To hit the bar once was unlucky but to do it twice was unbelievable.

"We had unbelievable bad luck. On any other day, one of those chances would have gone in for us and we would be sitting here with three points."

Wanderers also hit the woodwork a third time when Kevin Betsy shook the post as Carlisle held firm to smuggle a draw.

Johnson played through the pain barrier, having had a an ingrowing toenail removed 24 hours earlier. His toe was trodden on during the game but that won't stop him tonight.

Neither is anything expected to stop Rob Lee and Saturday's goal hero Tommy Mooney from shaking off their knocks from the weekend as manager John Gorman looks to put the club's first win on the board.

And the boss heads north full of confidence.

He said: "We're going up there to win it. We won't be doing what Carlisle did and setting our stall out for a draw. Rochdale are a good team but we've got nothing to fear from them."

Rochdale got off to a flier with a 1-0 win at Shrewsbury and Gorman reckons the fact that they are at home and will have to attack will suit Wycombe.

Up for it: Roger Johnson is set to bounce back tonight

He said: "They will come at us and that'll give us chances."
