Gorman's happy with his cup luck

WANDERERS boss John Gorman is looking forward to a return to cup football with some added spice after his League Two leaders were drawn at home to Northampton in the FA Cup first round and away to Gillingham in the LDV Vans Trophy second round.

Both games come with an added incentive for Gorman.

The Cobblers clash on November 5 pits Gorman up against his great pal Colin Calderwood with both bosses keen to settle a point after their 1-1 draw in the league in September.

Then Calderwood bragged that his team would finish the season higher than Wycombe and said that he doubted that Wanderers could do any better than they did that night.

Gorman said: "We always argue but we are the best of friends but it would be nice to put one over him in the cup.

"It's a difficult draw but it is good that we are at home and it should be a cracking tie. They took a point from us last time and no doubt will be looking to do better this time like we will."

The LDV Vans Trophy tie, which will be played in the week commencing November 21, has also got a special edge for Gorman.

He left Gillingham when he was caretaker manager there to take the Wanderers manager's job.

Gills chairman Paul Scally wanted Gorman to go for the job but Gorman refused despite steering the Gills to a win over Nottingham Forest.

Gorman said: "They wanted me to go for the job but I didn't want to stab Andy Hessenthaler [the manager who brought him in] in the back."

Gorman said: "I'm looking forward to going back there. It is a game we feel we can win in a competition that we want to do very well in this season."
