

New keeper is still sweet on The Toffees

IAIN Turner reckons joining Wycombe's promotion push has boosted his chances of first-team football at Everton.

The Scotland Under-21 goalie, who was a hero of Tuesday's LDV Vans penalty shootout win, joined Wycombe on a month's loan a fortnight ago and would be happy to extend that as he chases his long-term goal although he's ruled out a full-time move.

He said: "Long-term I want to be Everton number one and hopefully this is a step to getting there.

"You need to be playing first team football to get noticed and hopefully I will catch the gaffer's eye by coming here.

"I'm number three at Everton at the moment. Nigel Martyn is on fire and then there's Richard Wright.

"It's a lot to move and at my age I need to be playing. Nothing has been mentioned about staying beyond the first month but if John Gorman suggested it, I would be interested."

The 21-year-old, who has dislodged Frank Talia in the Wanderers goal, made a string of great saves before emerging as a hero in the penalty shootout saving one and forcing two other Gills to miss the target.

That erased his previous miserable shootout experience.

He said: "I was playing for Everton in a pre-season tournament in Thailand against Manchester City and I didn't get near any of their penalties."
