

Youngsters win Gibraltar tournament

Victorious: Blues U15s after their victory at Gibraltar's national stadium

WANDERERS U15s became the first English side to win the Gibraltar Cup after a 4-0 win over Spanish side Faro de Torrox in the final.

The Centre of Excellence side took the lead inside the first six minutes of the final at Gibraltar's national stadium with a goal from George Daly.

David Pearce then doubled the Blues advantage inside the first 15 minutes with his fifth goal of the tournament.

Matt Phillips then killed the final as a contest when he supplied the third on 22 minutes following an excellent break from Daly.

Harry Marks netted Wycombe's fourth just three minutes into the second half.

U15s boss Scott Marshall said: "I'm absolutely delighted with the outcome. It's been a very good week and to top it off by winning the competition could not have been better."

● Wanderers have been inundated with wannabe footballers who have responded to their advert to attend open trials.

The response has been so great, with almost 300 kids applying or being recommended by teachers and coaches, that Wanderers have had to cancel Sunday's proposed date at Ruislip Manor FC to hold three separate dates at their Booker training ground instead.

Some 116 youngsters aged between 11 and 14 will be watched at the first trial on April 23..

The next trial will be for 15-17 year-olds on July 23 with the final trial being held for youngsters aged 8-15 on July 30.

Wanderers are hoping the scheme will help them unearth some new talent.
