

Nethercott hoping for Woking deal after being released

STUART Nethercott has been released by Wycombe Wanderers.

The former Tottenham and Millwall centre back (pictured left) was told his contract was not being renewed by letter this week.

He had spent most of last season on loan at Conference side Woking.

He said: "It's always disappointing but I am not that surprised. Once you have been out on loan for a year you expect it."

Nethercott reached the FA Trophy Final with Woking and was part of the side which lost in the final to Grays Athletic at West Ham United's ground.

He is now hoping that the Conference club offer him a deal for next season.

Nethercott, who is on holiday in Spain, said: "When I went on loan to Woking I was a bit disappointed that I had to drop down a level but I enjoyed it there and hopefully there will be something there for me."

Meanwhile Blues' former England man Rob Lee is expected to discuss his future next week once his involvement in the Soccer Aid Charity has finished.

The 40-year-old, who has been on a week-to-week contract at Wycombe has yet to announce his plans.
