

Fans get the chance to fire their questions

WANDERERS have arranged a fans forum where supporters will be able to quiz manager Paul Lambert and managing director Steve Hayes.

The Forum will take place in the Vere Suite at Adams Park on Wednesday, March 19 at 7.15pm.

● Paul Lambert criticised supporters for their lack of noise during last week's 1-0 win over Rotherham United and has pleaded with them to turn up the volume.

He said: "I thought they were very quiet. The supporters that follow us away make some excellent noise but they are very quiet at home.

"We need them to get behind us at home because their noise really does make a difference to the players."

● Sam Stockley has been handed the nickname JR or Bobby after his trial with MLS side Dallas.

The 30-year-old, whose Adams Park contract expires in the summer, is still waiting to hear back from the Americans who are managed by former Arsenal player Steve Morrow.

The delay was to be expected because Dallas, who are currently in pre-season, are holding a number of trials before deciding which players to plump for.

● Wanderers boss Paul Lambert is still trawling the loan market for new players.

He missed out on the wideman he was after in the January transfer window but is checking out the loan market to see if he can borrow one instead.

● Blues reserves lost 2-1 at home to Southampton on Tuesday.

First team squad members Jamie

Young, Sam, Stockley, Chris Palmer, Mike Williamson and Andre Boucaud all featured but were unable to stop the Blues from going 2-0 down before Robbie Rice's second half penalty reduced the arrears after Daniel Fitchett was brought down.

Rice was skipper for the day having just returned from a six-game loan spell at Wealdstone.

● The first stage of the Bucks Free Press and Wycombe Wanderers joint initiative to find the next Blues superstar gets underway tomorrow.

Soccer Idol is a series of trials aimed at the U10s with one winner in each age group set to win a place on the Wanderers Centre of Excellence Scheme next season.
