

Mariners to move

WYCOMBE'S clash at Grimsby Town on March 29 will now have to be moved after the Mariners beat Morecambe over two legs to reach the Jonhstone's Paint Trophy Final at Wembley which is scheduled for the same weekend.

It's good news for Blues who have six other matches already in a punishing March schedule.

Antwi on target

WILL Antwi continued his latest rehabilitation with a goal for the reserves in their 3-0 win over Millwall on Tuesday.

Also on target were Martin Bullock and youngster Daniel Fitchett for a strong Blues side who included the returning Stefan Oakes after his knee problem.

Sam Stockley, Mike Williamson, Andre Boucaud, Chris Palmer and John Sutton also featured.

Play at the Park

WANDERERS are offering youngsters the chance to play on the Adams Park turf in their annual six-a-side tournament.

The U7s and U8s competition will take place on May 17 while the U9s and U10s will battle it out the following day.

Brain teasers

WANDERERS Independent Supporters Club are holding a quiz in the Woodlands Bar at Adams Park on Monday, March 17, starting at 8pm.

Teams can consist of a maximum six players and entry is £2 per person.

The wait goes on

SAM Stockley is still being left dangling by MLS side Dallas. He has still had no word after his three-day trial with the Americans.
