

Axed McGleish gets benched

BENCHED: Scott McGleish was dropped on Saturday

WANDERERS striker Scott McGleish has apologised to the club for his outburst at manager Peter Taylor which saw him dumped to the bench last Saturday.

McGleish paid the price for throwing his shirt at Taylor when he was substituted after just 58 minutes in the previous week's 0-0 draw against Brentford and was left out of the starting 11 for Saturday's 2-1 win over Dagenham.

McGleish said: "I did it in the heat of the moment and it was a childish thing to do.

"I apologised to the manager on the Monday and it was no surprise to me when he fined me."

McGleish, who topped Wanderers' scoring charts with 26 goals last season, was an unused substitute on Saturday.

He said: "It wasn't a shock to be left out. I was half expecting it to be honest.

"I've just got to get my head down and see if I can get back in the team."
