

Wanderers get Millwall in Cup

WANDERERS have drawn Millwall in the first round of the Carling Cup.

Blues will host the newly-promoted Championship side during the week starting Monday, August 9.

The two teams were in the same division last season, but while Millwall went up to the Championship Wanderers were relegated to League Two.

However, Gary Waddock's team won't be daunted ahead of the tie, having beaten Millwall home and away last season.

They won 2-0 away and 1-0 at home.

● A WANDERERS XI pre-season friendly at Ware will now take place on Thursday, July 22, ko 7.30pm.

The match was originally scheduled for the day before.

The full Wanderers squad has pre-season friendlies at Woking on July 10 and Chesham on July 13.

Blues cool Rendell link without ruling it out

GARY Waddock says Wanderers have not spoken to Peterborough striker Scott Rendell.

The 24-year-old marksman was linked with Blues this week when Peterborough director of football Barry Fry said Wycombe were one of four clubs chasing him.

Fry suggested that Blues were in a race with Stevenage, Burton and Torquay for the player's signature, but Waddock cooled the speculation without completely writing it off.

He said: "We haven't spoken to the player.

"He's a good player, a good footballer, but that's all I'm prepared to say. There are a lot of good players out there and we're monitoring a few of them."

Rendell is registered with Posh but spend most of last season on loan at Torquay, where he scored 13 goals in 39 games.

Fry said: "He's already spoken to Burton, Stevenage and Wycombe.

"There are four clubs in for Scott. He is happy down in Torquay, but they have got no money so I can't do a deal.

"He's got two years left with us, Torquay is his preferred club.

"They may take him on a year's loan but that doesn't really get rid of him and they're not a flush club so they can't pay us a big loan fee."

Meanwhile, Waddock is still waiting for Adam Hinshelwood and John Mousinho to sign new contracts at the club.

Captain Hinshelwood is expected to sign when he returns to the club after holidays, but there is far more doubt surrounding Mousinho's future.

The midfielder has been linked with Stevenage.

Waddock said: "We've been on the phone all summer and as we get closer to pre-season things will develop.

"But it's his career. He will decide what he wants to do."
