Hunt on for ex-Blues

WYCOMBE Wanderers' thriving Ex-Players Association, which now boasts over 140 members, is currently searching for three former heroes.

Alan Phillips, Gary Hand and Dylan Evans all featured in the historic FA Cup third round games with Middlesbrough in 1975.

All their teammates have been invited back to the Ex-Players' annual dinner on November 18 when those two matches against Jack Charlton's First Division table-toppers will be celebrated.

But these three players cannot be traced.

Blues' goalkeeping hero John Maskell, whose 616 appearances for the club between 1964 and 1980 included those games with Boro, says his Association are desperate to get in contact with the trio so they can field a full squad.

"Brian Lee, our manager in those glory years of the 70s, would love to be able to meet up with all the team again so if anyone knows the whereabouts of Phillips, who captained the side, full-back Hand or substitute Evans then we'd love to be able to be able to invite them," says Maskell.
