Latest Trust Auction underway

The next of our highly popular auctions kicked off this week. We've got lots of signed shirts, a WWFC 125th anniversary ball signed by the 2012 squad, a final programme signed by Gareth and the squad and model metal cast toys plus player signatures. They're all waiting for your bids and will make great Christmas presents.

The auction opened today at 10am and closes at 9pm on Saturday 11th December. Click HERE to join in the auction online.

Phil Catchpole to meet fans at Trust Table

Phil will be joining us at the Trust table in the Caledonian this Saturday for the Wimbledon game. He knows everything there is to know about commentating, broadcasting generally, the Blues and the EFL. What's more he'll be on BBC Three Counties at AP straight after he's with us.

So come along to the Trust table, put your questions to Phil, learn about commentating on the Blues and maybe get a shout out on the radio!

Where - Trust table, Caledonian Suite

When - 1.15pm Saturday 11th, don't miss it.

Quarters Ball Club Latest

November's QBC draw was the biggest yet, with a massive prize of £687.20 going to our latest winner Gina Clarke. Gina has been a Blues fan since that famous cup run in 2001 and was so excited on her big win.

This month's draw is open till the end of December 25th, so you've plenty of time to get your entries in. The total prize pot is estimated at over £2000! To make sure you're in with a chance of winning it, click HERE to sign up now.

Each entry costs £2 and all funds go to the Trust.

Volunteers Needed

We've recently started a volunteer team to help clean the Stadium after a home Saturday game. They meet on Sunday from 10am and spend about two hours litter picking to get the Stadium ready for another week.

We need more volunteers to join our clean up squad. You will only be doing every other home game so it's not too onerous a task. As a thank you, all team members who join regularly, will be invited into the Ignite 3rd dressing room for one game. This is an amazing hospitality experience, where you'll be able to watch the officials, the teams and the managers going out onto the pitch, via a one way glass window onto the tunnel. Plus, tickets to the game and superb food and drinks.

So come and join our team and help your Club and get yourself an amazing bonus. Please get in touch with Georgina Heritage on georgina@4everblues.com.

Next Trust Board Meeting December 23rd, at 7pm.

As this meeting is so close to Christmas and the virus is still with us, we've decided to make this meeting Zoom only. Get the date and time in your diary now. Full details of the link to join the meeting will come out later.
