

Tickle your tastebuds with Blues hits

Tune in to Wycombe Sound's final Wycombe Wanderers Show of 2021.

So what do these former players have in common? Mike Brown, Les Merrick, Colin Bunting, Keith Mead, Anton Vircavs, Paul Hyde, Stuart Cash, Steve Thompson, Sean Devine, Dave McCracken and Danny Senda.

Correct. They all turned out with distinction for the Blues and – representing the 1950s to the 2000s – they’ve been re-telling their own individual stories on Wycombe Sound’s Wanderers Show broadcast every week.

Seven decades of fascinating tales along with those from other great characters also associated with the Loakes Park and Adams Park years. They’re still all available in full via <https://podlink.to/TWWS> along with other great names who guested last season. But for a post-Christmas taster, tune in this Thursday at 7pm for a selection of the best stories spun by players who’ve entertained us in the last 70 years and more specifically over the past five months.

Colin Besley and Bob Johnson have drawn out such wonderful memories along with all the news and interviews with Gareth Ainsworth and his current squad. It’s all on 106.6FM or via the website <https://wycombesound.org.uk/>

Happy New Year from all at WWEPA.
