

Wanderers fans can bag a bargain from the Kitman's Collection, with a wide range of kit available throughout the half-term week.

Running in Monty's from 10am-3pm on Tuesday 28th-Thursday 30th May, and at a stall at High Wycombe Market on Friday 31st May, the collection includes items from the 2022/23 and 2023/24 campaigns, including a selection of player-worn shirts and training tops, such as:

- Ryan Tafazolli - Match-Worn Home Playoff Semi-Finals 21/22
- Daryl Horgan - Match-Worn Home Playoff Final 21/22
- Lewis Wing - Match-Worn Home Shirt Playoff Semi-Finals 21/22
- Adebayo Akinfenwa - Player-Worn Training Shirt 21/22
- Nigel Lonwijk - Signed Match-Worn Away Shirt 23/24
- 23/24 Signed Player-Worn Training Shirts of Luke Leahy, Beryly Lubala, Gideon Kodua and more!

Kit from the 2022/23 season will be reduced by up to 70% off.

Head to Monty's (via the shop entrance) from Tuesday-Thursday between 10am-3pm, or come and see us at the market stall on Friday!

Meanwhile, throughout last season we were happy to issue replacement shirts for those fans who experienced faults with the hummel badge from the first batch of shirts which were produced.

As of 1st July, no further replacements for these faulty items will be issued.
