

Daniel Udoh has joined the Wanderers on a free transfer after leaving Shrewsbury Town at the end of his contract, the club are delighted to announce.

The striker, 27, enjoyed a prolific goalscoring record in non-league and earned his shot at professional football with Crewe Alexandra in 2016, before returning to the EFL in 2019 with the Shrews following a successful season in front of goal with AFC Telford.

He became a fans' favourite in his five years at Shrewsbury, netting 16 times in 2021/22 and 12 times last term, topping the Shropshire club's goalscoring charts.

Daniel follows in the footsteps of Alex Hartridge, Jaiden Bartolo, Jack Matton, Nathan Bishop, Brody Peart, Tyreeq Bakinson and Daniel Harvie, who have all joined the Blues this summer.

Matt Bloomfield said: "Dan has got a great eye for goal and works extremely hard for the team, so we're thrilled that he's agreed to begin a new chapter in his career by moving to Wycombe and strengthening our attacking options.

"He's been a handful for our defence whenever we've come up against him down the years and we've been tracking his progress for some time.

"Adding someone of his calibre to our frontline is another great step forward for us in this transfer window and I think the fans will take him to their hearts quickly."
