

There's just one more game at Adams Park in 2025 when Bolton Wanderers come to town on Saturday 20th December (k.o. 3pm). Ahead of the match, we crunch the numbers from a memorable 2025 so far at Our House.

Games

There've been 30 men's first-team matches at Adams Park so far in 2025 - 24 in the league, plus 2 FA Cup ties, 2 Vertu Trophy ties, 1 Carabao Cup fixture and 1 play-off match.

They've fallen on 16 Saturdays, 10 Tuesdays, 1 Sunday, 1 Monday, 1 Wednesday and 1 Friday, but no Thursdays.

Those 30 men's games have yielded 14 wins, 8 draws and 8 defeats. Only Stockport (13) and Lincoln (12) have more home wins in League One in 2025.

(Don't forget the 2 women's team games against Reading and Chesham United, plus the 2 FA Youth Cup matches for the academy against Bristol Rovers and Bromley.)

Goals

The Chairboys have scored 40 times at home in 2025, with 23 different scorers (including 2 own goals).

Cauley Woodrow and Sam Bell lead the way with 5 goals each; Fred Onyedinma has 4, and Richard Kone netted 3.

Wanderers have kept 13 clean sheets in those 30 games.

And the Blues have scored 7 goals in the 88th minute or later, all of which have been crucial in the outcome (Morley winner vs Exeter, Kone winner vs Barnsley, Taylor winner vs Stevenage, Tilley equaliser vs Reading, Bell and Lowry struck to snatch a draw vs Barnsley, and Grimmer winner vs Lincoln).

Players

Wycombe have used 55 different players at Adams Park in 2025.

Luke Leahy has the most appearances (29), missing only 1 fixture - the Vertu Trophy win over Fulham.

Fans

153,030 fans have walked through the turnstiles at Adams Park for the 30 men's first-team matches so far.

That's made up of 129,715 Wycombe fans, and 23,315 away supporters.