

Wycombe Wanderers Women capped off 2025 in style as they defeated Beaconsfield Town Ladies 9-1 on home turf at the weekend.

Courtesy of a Jess Watkins hat-trick, plus Laura Hennessy, Kayla Potter, Chloe Melton, Sophie Schofield, Cat Beaver and Jordanne Hoesli-Atkins all finding the back of the net - the Chairgirls ended their final fixture of 2025 in style to root themselves comfortably at the top of the Southern Region Women's Football League table.

Their season thus far has been nothing short of impressive, with an abundance of goals and wins stacking up.

The Chairgirls have only drawn once this season in the league, with their recent 0-0 at home against Reading also being the sole game they have not scored in from their 17 fixtures played across all competitions so far.

From their other seven played league games, the Blues have netted 43 times whilst only conceding seven as they hold the superior goal difference of any team in the league.

Across other competitions - the Wanderers remain in the Isthmian Cup and Southern Region Women's Football League Cup. They also made it to the First Round Proper of the Adobe Women's FA Cup for the second time in their history, but were knocked out by Bridgwater after a tight penalty shootout.

It has been a goal fest so far this season with 78 goals being netted by 11 different goalscorers across all competitions. Kayla Potter, who was last season's top goalscorer for both the club and league, is currently top spot for this season's golden boot with 21 goals scored so far. New to the team this season, Chloe Melton sits close behind with 20 to her name so far. Jess Watkins takes third spot at this stage as she has found the back of the net 14 times across the 17 games played.

The Wanderers return to action on the 11th January 2026 when take the trip over to Oxford City in the league as they kick off the remaining half of their 2025/26 season, which is set to be an exciting venture to follow.
